Dear _____

This time last year your household was interviewed for the Understanding Society study. The study is concerned with how things change over time and we would like to interview you and your household again.

I called today at the address your household was interviewed at last year and found that you now live elsewhere. I spoke to _____ who did not wish to give your new address or telephone number without your permission, but did agree to forward this letter to you on our behalf.

We would be most grateful if you would let us know your current address and telephone number, wherever you are living now. You can call us on Freephone 0800 252 853, email us at contact@understandingsociety.org.uk or complete and return the reply slip below in the Freepost envelope provided – you do not need a stamp.

By giving us your name, address and telephone number you are not committing yourself to be interviewed. Once you have confirmed your new details an interviewer will contact you and invite you to take part. If you are willing, a convenient time for an interview can then be arranged.

The study is being conducted by researchers from the University of Essex, together with NatCen. If you have any questions about the study, or would prefer not to be contacted again, please visit www.understandingsociety.org.uk/participants or call us using the Freephone number provided above.

Thank you for your help.

Yours sincerely,

Dear _____,

You may be aware that _____ participated in an important research project called Understanding Society in 2009. The study is concerned with how things change over time and we are hoping to revisit everyone who participated last time, to see how their lives have changed or stayed the same.

Unfortunately, we have been unable to make contact with _____ and they gave us your name as a contact in the event of any change in their circumstances.

We would be most grateful if you would let us know their current address and telephone number, wherever they are living now. You can call us on Freephone 0800 252 853, email us at contact@understandingsociety.org.uk or complete and return the reply slip below in the Freepost envelope provided – you do not need a stamp.

By giving us _____'s name, address and telephone number you are not committing them to be interviewed. Taking part is entirely voluntary, though we very much hope to achieve an interview with everybody who took part in the previous round of Understanding Society, so that our results give an accurate picture of people's experiences. Once we have their new details an interviewer from NatCen will contact them and invite them to take part.

If you have any questions about the study, please visit www.understandingsociety.org.uk or call us using the number provided above.

Thank you for your help.

Yours sincerely,
